Recreations:

- NNO- Come One Come All for National Night Out August 6, 2019 @6:00 PM held at the Shirley B.Foster Elementary School 511 Edwards Ave. Chesilhurst NJ 08089 Camden County Health and Human Services Department spearheaded this event for Camden County residents to promote community; I am proud to say that Chesilhurst will be participating this year and some of the activities will be a Movie that is age appropriate, Sports activities, Information and Snacks will be provided! NNO is a celebration of community and family and we encourage all residents to attend; for any questions or information regarding NNO please contact councilwoman.rukiah.alwan@gmail.com or www.camdencounty.com (camden county human services has several services and programs that are FREE for residents of camden county)
- Back to School- We all know that going back to school can be very stressful and COSTLY! One way that may assist with cost and stress is to search the <https://www.nj211.org> database for FREE school supplies as well as other resources and information; nj211 is equivalent to an online library of resources and information covering a plethora of common issues related to employment, housing, social services, homelessness, mental health and everything in between; PLEASE use this database to assist with everyday needs
- Historical Committee: No report at this time!
- Planning/Zoning Board: Meetings will resume September the first Wednesday of each month at 7PM (September 4)
